FALL 2023 – EXAM CONFLICT FORM

An examination conflict exists when a student has two examinations with starting times that are less than 24 hours apart. Students with an examination conflict must complete this form and email it to Ms. Donna Glasper (DGlasper@sulc.edu) no later than close of business (5:00 p.m.) on Nov. 10, 2023.

Student Name _____ Student # _____

E-mail Address _____

Below please list all examinations in the date and order that they occur. Then, in the space below the examination schedule provide information about the examinations that conflict with each other.

Complete Examination Schedule (In Date Order)

Course Number and Name	Professor	Exam Date	Exam Time

Conflicting Exams:

Course Names/Professors: 1) _____

2) _____

3)_____

4)_____

Honor Code Statement: You must read and sign the below statement.

I hereby attest that I will uphold the honor code of Southern University Law Center regarding the taking of examinations. I state, on my honor, that I will not discuss the examination with anyone who has taken or seen the examination and that I have no advance knowledge of the contents of the examination. I further attest I will not discuss this examination until all students have taken it. I attest that I will follow the instructions contained in the examination.

_____ _____

Student Signature Date

Request to Reschedule Exam:

Granted _____ Denied _____

_____

Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs

Revised 09.15.23