The Spellman Library's Government Documents Collection also includes selected publications from Louisiana State Government. These government publications are produced by various governmental agencies, and are major sources of current and historical information concerning virtually every public policy that might describe or govern our society. Although most publications are in book or pamphlet form, they are also published as maps, periodicals, posters, microfiche, CD-ROMs, and electronic databases on the Internet. To access these materials during library hours call the Government Documents & Microforms Office at (225) 771-2194.

LIBRARY RULES AND POLICIES

From the desk of the Director

The Library supports research of Southern University Law Center students, faculty, and staff. All others may use the facilities and check out materials only at the discretion of the Director of Library Services.

CIRCULATION POLICIES

Students, faculty and staff must have a valid SULC Identification card. Other patrons must have a current photo identification.

- ▶ Books                               14 days
- ▶ Reserve Materials               2 hours
- ▶ Examinations                   2 hours

RECALLS

Fourteen (14) day loans may be kept for the entire loan period. However, recalls may be placed at any time.

FINES

Fines for regularly circulating items are $0.35 per day up to the maximum cost of the book; however, students are expected to renew materials by the due date. Reserves and Exams are $1.00 per day for titles with daily loan periods; and $1.00 per hour with hourly loan periods at a $16.00 maximum per day.

REPLACEMENT FEES

Patrons are billed for failing to return items following overdue notices. These volumes are considered lost by the library. Each volume is billed at the cost of the book plus a $25.00 replacement fee and must be paid, as are any overdue fines on Reserve Collection titles.

After a billing statement is sent, patrons must pay any overdue fines, even if the book is eventually returned to the library. Patrons may not provide a replacement copy for a lost or damaged item.

You may appeal overdue fines, but lost book charges cannot be appealed. To appeal, contact the Circulation and Reserve desk at (225) 771-2146. Fees must be paid as they appear on your billing statement that you receive for the semester.

NON-PAYMENT PENALTIES

When an account reaches $50.00 in non-payments, a hold is placed on University records. Users having outstanding fees may also be blocked on the circulation system and overdue accounts will eventually be referred to a collection agency. Questions concerning these matters can be discussed with the Circulation and Reserve Staff, Room 146, Monday - Friday, 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM, or by calling (225) 771-2146.

STUDY ROOMS

The library has two (2) study rooms that are available on a first come, first serve basis. These study rooms were designed to be used by a group of three (3) or more students. One member of the group may hold the room for a maximum of 30 minutes. If the group has not assembled after 30 minutes, the person holding the room must surrender the area and another group may occupy the room. Personal belongings should not be left in an unoccupied study area and food and drink are strictly forbidden. Violation of this policy may result in the surrender of the area. When leaving study area, please leave the door open.

Faculty members may reserve study rooms by contacting the Office of the Director of Library Services.

STUDY CARRELS

Study carrels are located throughout the library for student convenience. Locations include the Main Corridor, Stacks areas, Federal Reading Room, and the Alvin A. Roché, Jr. Reserve Reading Room. Every evening all library materials and all personal items will be removed from all unattended carrels. Personal items found are turned into the Lost and Found at the Circulation Desk. Library materials will be re-shelved.

FOOD, DRINK, SMOKING

Food is not allowed in the Law Library. Beverages are allowed, but only in spill-proof containers. Beverages are NOT allowed at any computer workstation or in either of the Computer Labs. Smoking is prohibited in the Law Center facility. Violators of the food, drink, or smoking policies will be asked to leave and reported.

CELLULAR TELEPHONES & PAGERS

As a courtesy to all library patrons, cellular telephone use is prohibited in the library. Telephone and pagers, however, may remain on, if they are set to vibrate, not ring. Patrons must leave the library before returning incoming calls and pages, no exceptions.

HONOR CODE VIOLATIONS

The theft or willful damage of Law Library materials, and the willful failure to properly reshel materials, with the intent to preclude another's use, are violations of the Law Center Honor Code. Such acts are considered serious by both Library and Law Center administration, and will be dealt with accordingly.

RE-SHELVING

Students are asked to reshel all Reporters immediately after use. Do not reshel any books with call numbers. These books are to be left on tables where used. Call number books will be returned to their proper location by the library staff for future access.

EXAMINATION OF PROPERTY

The Library exit is monitored by our Library Guard. A Patron's belongings are checked each time he or she exits the Law Library. Please open your bags at the checkpoint station. This policy is designed to insure proper management of library collection inventory.

LOST AND FOUND

Personal items and books found in the Law Library will be taken to Lost and Found located behind the Circulation & Reserve counter. The Law Center and the Law Library take no responsibility for return, or safekeeping of items left in the Law Library. Personal items and papers left are not the responsibility of the Law Center or Law Library.

MISSING MATERIALS

Questions regarding items which cannot be located on the library shelves should be referred to the Circulation & Reserve Desk to determine the status of the item. Missing items could have been checked out, or sent to the bindery. Items designated as missing are traced, and the patron is notified if the item is located.

SECURITY

Valuables such as cellular phones, book bags, purses, keys, laptops and briefcases should not be left unattended anywhere in the library. Thefts should be reported to the Director of Library Services.

FAQ:

My card is not working properly. Report this to the Circulation & Reserve Desk, or to the Office for the Director of Library Services.

COMPUTER & ONLINE SERVICES

Computer Labs

There are two computer labs located on the first floor of the Law Library to facilitate computer access to students, faculty, and staff. Computer Lab 168 & Computer Lab 136 are administered by our library staff. Computer Lab 168 is located in the northeast section of the Federal Reading Room. Computer Lab 136 is located off the main library corridor, south of the doorway to the upstairs Stacks area.

The labs are open during Law Library hours for your convenience. Lab computers require a valid log-in and can be used only by students who have completed registration for the current semester; and SULC faculty/staff. Computer log-in IDs are obtained from Information Technology Department (2nd Floor-SULC) during the registration process, at the beginning of the semester. Library guest needing to use the computers should secure a log-in ID from Ms. Gaines in Room 135 or from the Circulation Desk.

Neither food nor drinks (even in spill-proof containers) are allowed in the Computer Labs. A student who brings food into the library must put it away, or he or she will be asked to leave. A student who brings food or drinks into any computer lab will also be asked to leave.

All computers feature Microsoft Office 2007 software (with Word, Excel, Access, Outlook & Power Point applications). Microsoft Internet Explorer provides access to the World Wide Web (www.), and gives users access to:

- E-mail accounts
- LexisNexis and Westlaw research
- Class related research
- General information research

The Computer Labs are staffed during the day by a full-time staff members, and student assistants during evening and weekend hours. Please be mindful that both Computer Lab 168 close thirty (30) minutes earlier than the Law Library; and Computer Lab 136 closes fifteen (15) minutes earlier than the Law Library.

Printing

Each computer is connected to a networked laser printer. Each student printing account comes with a printing capacity of 250 black/white, one-sided pages per semester. Additional printing can be purchased with a valid SULC ID from the Printing Add-Value machine located on the table between the computer stations on the main corridor.

When using Westlaw or LexisNexis in the computer lab, it is strongly recommended that students send their print jobs to the designated Westlaw (stand-alone) or LexisNexis printers located in Computer Lab 136, not to the attached network laser printers. If the print jobs are sent to the network laser printers, your account will be charged for each page printed. Both Westlaw and LexisNexis offer very liberal printing privileges when their printers are used: students are not charged for printing.

Telephones (2) are located in Computer Lab 136 next to the Westlaw and LexisNexis printers, so that respective representatives can be contacted regarding Westlaw and LexisNexis related problems. Reference Librarians and student representatives (hours are posted) can answer any questions that you may have regarding online research.

Laptops

An Ethernet adapter is necessary to connect to the network and laptops must be registered with Computer Services before using the wireless network. Please see the Information Technology Department located on the second floor of the Law Center for more information.

LexisNexis & Westlaw

LexisNexis and Westlaw databases are limited to educational use only and can be accessed on-campus or off-campus. Computer Lab 136 houses the LexisNexis and Westlaw printers. Computer copy that is printed from either website should be directed to the appropriate printer. You must then pick up your FREE copies in Computer Lab 136. Copy sent to the regular printers in Computer Lab 168 will be deducted from your printing balance on your SULC ID card.

First semester law students are given an access passwords to Westlaw and to LexisNexis during 1L Orientation held prior to registration. Students who fail to get their passwords during the two-day orientation are then responsible for contacting Student Representatives from Westlaw and from LexisNexis to get password access to the databases. Contact information for Westlaw and LexisNexis Student Representatives is posted in Computer Labs 136 & 168. Library staff members are not authorized to assign passwords for either of these databases. The company representatives train each first-year student in the use of these databases. Advanced classes are held throughout the year for all students.

Law Library TWEN Page

The Law Library TWEN page can be accessed by Westlaw log-in, on and off campus. Select TWEN, then click Add a Course; select Oliver B. Spellman Law Library, click Submit. To view exams, select Exams, chose from the alphabetical listing and open the folder for your subject, and select the exams for the professor needed. 1Ls have restricted access to selected materials for the 1L class.

GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS, MICROFORMS & MEDIA

The Government Documents, Microform and Media department is located on the first floor of the Law Library in Room 169. All items in this collection can be viewed in the library. Many items are reference materials and may not be checked out at anytime. Certain documents are restricted, and can only be checked out by faculty or staff member. Circulation & Reserve cannot circulate items from this collection.

GDMM also provides access to an inventory of state, and federal government documents published online through various websites. Federal documents in print media are shelved according to the Superintendent of Documents (SuDocs) number. The classification numbers usually correspond to the issuing agency. Items are shelved in alphanumerical order according to this system, and the shelves are labeled to indicate the range of classification numbers in each. These items are located in the West Stacks, FirstLevel. Materials are selected from all major executive, judicial, and legislative agencies and bodies, with emphasis on topics that support the law school curriculum, faculty and student research, and needs of our general users. Please consult the Government Document Specialist if you need assistance.

Louisiana Documents

Louisiana documents are shelved in the West Stacks, Level One. These documents are arranged by issuing agency, using a system similar to the one for U.S. documents. In addition, other Louisiana related materials, including the Louisiana Statutes, Annotated, the Southern Reporter, the Louisiana Digest, and the Louisiana Law Reviews are shelved in the Louisiana Reading Room. Specific inquiries concerning all Louisiana materials should be directed to the Governments Documents Specialist in Room 169 or to the Reference Librarians.

Microforms

Government documents, maps, and legal publications make up our extensive microfiche and microfilm collection. There are two microform readers located in the Government Documents, Microforms & Media area; and a Digital Microform Reader/Printer and Computer Workstation located in the Federal Reserve Reading Room to facilitate: 1) document printing needs; and 2) document transfer for computer accessibility. No microforms can be checked out to anyone at anytime. Any questions regarding microforms should be directed to the Government Documents Specialist in Room 169.

Audio/Visuals

Audio/Visual materials are located at the Circulation & Reserve Desk, and in Government Documents, Microforms & Media area. These items are designated as "Media" in the Library Catalog (OPAC), and include DVDs, VHS tapes, and cassette tapes with a legal or historical theme. Our DVD collection is constantly being updated with the latest releases of legal/historical movies, documentaries, and class materials. Audio/Visual equipment is available at the Circulation & Reserve Desk for Law Library viewing of media. Any questions regarding Audio/Visuals should be directed to the Government Documents Specialist in Room 169 or to Circulation & Reserve Staff.
