Please give the following information: _____

1. What part of your application do you wish to amend?

2. Please state with particularity the information you wish to amend. (Use additional sheet if necessary).

3. If the original question requested documents please provide the documents requested.
4. Please state with particularity, why was the information you are adding omitted from your original application. (Use additional sheet if necessary).

* The SULC law school application states" [b]ecause of the high ethical standards to which lawyers are held, failure to fully disclose information requested below may result in revocation of admission or disciplinary action by the Law Center, or denial of permission to practice law by the state in which you seek admission to the bar...."

Your request is subject to the SULC Non-Academic Honor Code. Your amendment may be either accepted with no action required on your part or the Law Center or could result in disciplinary action up to and including revocation of your admission. Please be aware that even if your amendment request is accepted without adverse action taken by the Law Center, bar admission committees have sometimes refused to certify the character of a graduate when they (the bar) are not persuaded by the explanation provided by the graduate for not disclosing moving violations or other arrests and charges, on their law school application. You will be contacted with the status of your request as soon as it is processed. Allow 2-3 weeks before contacting the Office of Student Affairs.
