SULC Names New Associate Vice Chancellor For Financial Affairs

Terry R. Hall, chief financial officer for the Louisiana Family Recovery Corps in Baton Rouge, has been named Associate Vice Chancellor for Financial Affairs at the Southern University Law Center, effective January 14, 2010.

Hall, who has been with the Recovery Corps since 2006, has more than 40 years of experience in public and private accounting and tax for non-profits, financial, construction, manufacturing, and retail organizations.

“His wealth of experience in budgeting, financial reporting, and financial planning for non-profit institutions, including colleges and universities, makes him an excellent choice for this position,” Chancellor Freddie Pitcher, Jr., said.

The Baton Rouge native succeeds longtime SULC chief financial officer Bertell Dixon, who died on November 14, 2009.

Hall formerly practiced 15 years in his own CPA Firm and also served for 16 years as manager of general accounting and financial planning for Copolymer Rubber and Chemical Corporation in Baton Rouge; and as senior accountant for Coopers & Lybrand in Boston, Massachusetts, from 1970-1975. He is a member of the Society of Louisiana Certified Public Accountants.

Hall is a 1971 graduate of Southern University with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, accounting major.
