

Cross-Registration / Articulation Agreement

Full-time students with second or third year standing may take one course a semester at Louisiana State University Law Center, Baton Rouge, with the approval of either of the Vice chancellors. Students must be enrolled in 12 hours during the fall and spring semesters or four hours during the summer sessions at Southern University Law Center before cross registering at LSU.

Students at Louisiana State University Law Center share the same privileges under the conditions stated above. Forms for cross-registration are available in the Records and Registration Department.
