

SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY LAW CENTER STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

(Revised September, 20, 2016)
Revisions by Parliamentarian Hunter Thomas

PREAMBLE

In the belief that we, the students, have the right as well as the responsibility, to play a significant role in guiding our law center, and in the belief that a democratic student government is the best means by which this role may be played, we, the students of Southern University Law Center (hereinafter the "Law Center"), hereby create this body. It shall be known as the Student Bar Association (hereinafter the "SBA").

With its authority derived from the student body and its existence recognized by the faculty and administration of this university, the SBA will implement programs for the improvement and enrichment of the Law Center community, as well as express the opinions of the students on any and all matters that are of concern to them.

We acknowledge that responsibilities are necessary complements to rights and authority. Each student organization must respect the rights of other members of the Law Center community and must use proper channels in exercising his or her rights as a student.

The academic and civic integrity of this institution must be upheld by all who play a significant role in university affairs.

This Constitution and the SBA shall act as a means for student self-governance.

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I.

NAME

The governing body of the students of Southern University Law Center shall be known as the SBA.
